

UNIVERSAL PANEL COMPUTER FOR MACHINE VISION APPLICATION

Incorporating a Sysgration's Universal Panel Computer in the machine vision will benefit manufacturers by helping them improving the ease of use, accessibility, providing user with full control and monitoring the result as well as achieving high productivity with fully automation and control systems.

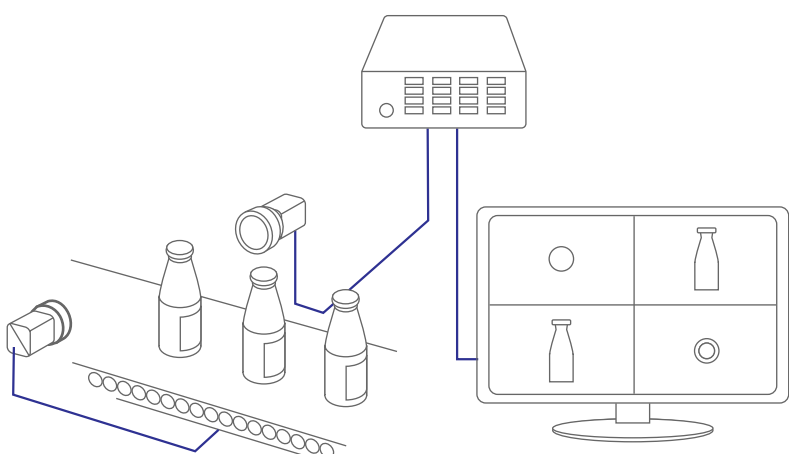

The real time image captured by machine vision systems will fed to our Universal Panel Computer where it is analyzed and processed. Equipped with latest Intel or NXP processor, UPC provides excellent and reliable performance.

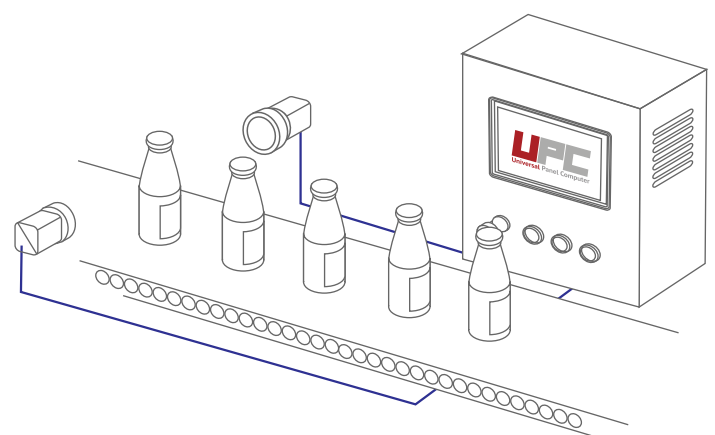

- Various display size 10.1", 15.6", and 21.5"
- Flexible panel and wall mount to accommodate various scenarios
- Expansion modules for various application

Improving worker efficiency

Box PC + Display

Universal Panel Computer

Providing improved efficiency to workers and keeping the working environment safe is of prime concern for manufacturers. Sysgration's latest Universal Panel Computer gives the one single design solutions to eliminate extra cable from box pc and display. It can be installed in Panel or mounted to an arm fitting variety of factory site requirements.